2017 Fog Crest Vineyard Laguna West Chardonnay Russian River Valley

Fog Crest Vineyard partnered with growers who use sustainable farming methods and are mindful stewards of Sonoma County's biological diversity to produce our Laguna West Chardonnay.

Vintage Notes

The Two-Thousand-Seventeen growing season in the Russian River Valley began with a drought-crushing rainy season and ended with historic wildfires with a three-day record-breaking heatwave in between. Despite the challenges, we were able to manage and harvest one of our best vintages.

Tasting Notes

The 2017 Laguna West Chardonnay is scented of honey drizzled apples, pie crust, and fresh yellow and green tree fruits with soft lemon touches. Medium-bodied and fresh with ripe fruits and floral nuances coming through on the finish.
