2017 Fog Crest Vineyard Laguna West Pinot Noir Russian River Valley

Fog Crest Vineyard partnered with growers who use sustainable farming methods and are mindful stewards of Sonoma County's biological diversity to produce our Laguna West Pinot Noir.

Vintage Notes

The Two-Thousand-Seventeen growing season in the Russian River Valley began with a drought-crushing rainy season and ended with historic wildfires with a three-day record-breaking heatwave in between. Despite the challenges, we were able to manage and harvest one of our best vintages.

Tasting Notes

The 2017 Laguna West Pinot Noir has a wonderful body and bright red color with cocoa, coffee, and allspice notes. The first step offers a broad mouthfeel with a supple mid-palate ending with a vibrant touch of acidity.
